GRIDIRON GLORY.

- 1.(13) Football represents the spirit of America more than any other game. It calls for speed, strength, brains, courage, training and team play - (overlap to)
- 2.(5) The ball itself has a most humble beginning -
- 3.(9) The coach is the commander-in-chief. "Chick" Meehan of Syracuse talking to his squad -
- 4.(6) Fundamentals must be soundly taught - and followed.
- 5.(5) The game's first slogan - "Go for a loose ball!"
- 6.(5) Good hard tackling is the first line of defense.
- 7.(4) Bucking straps for the back field stars -
- 8.(3) Making a broken field runner -
- 9.(6) Bowman, Olympic sprint star, is one of the swiftest backs -
- 10.(5) The flying tackle calls for nerve and skill.
- 11.(3) The big splash -
- 12.(10) The line must charge low - this is how they learn -
- 13.(3) And charge hard. This helps -
- 14.(5) The linemen must open a hole for the runner.
- 15.(8) The runner with the ball must have strong interference to clear the way.
- 16.(6) Breaking up the interference and spilling the attack -

GRIDIRON GLORY.

- 17.(6) Line bucking isn't fancy but it takes the ball along.
- 18.(3) Bucking through
- 19.(6) The forward pass is ~~XX~~^{now} one of the big ground gainers.
- 20.(7) Getting away a punt in the face of a charge -
- 21.(8) The kicking game is a feature of both attack and defense.
- 22.(5) Just a little slow and the punt is blocked -
- 23.(8) The big idea is to fool the defense with a deceptive play.
- 24.(5) But one fumble can wipe out six good plays --
- 25.(4) The day of the big game -
- 26.(8) From ocean to ocean there is no other sport that draws greater crowds.
- 27.(5) Each year 75,000 see Yale and the Army meet.
- 28.(8) The big hip-hip and the vivid flash of color lure out the multitudes.
- 29.(3) Down the field!
- 30.(5) There is always a thrill of one sort or another.
- 30*(3) Rutgers vs. Fordham.
- 31.(3) Weather doesn't matter much -
- 32.(6) They battle through the mud as well as through the sun.

GRIDIRON GLORY

- 33.(3) Speed counts for little on a muddy field.
- 34.(4) It's the the touchdown that counts.
- 35.(3) Columbia vs. Dartmouth.
- 36.(3) Hold 'em!"
- 37.(4) Victory just beyond the chalk line!
- 38.(10) A big moment - Koppisch of Columbia breaks past Dartmouth's line for a touchdown.
- 39.(4) Penn State vs. Georgia Tech
- 40.(5) The cheer leaders take charge of moral support.
- 41.(3) Tighting for every yard!
- 42.(5) Battling through to the final whistle -
- 43.(6) The stands find color and the excitement of thrilling action -
- 44.(18) While on the battle-swept gridiron the player fights for the glory and fame of his college, learning the worth of strength and courage and the principles of hard, clean play.
- 45.(3) THE END.
